

Health, Safety and Working Environment

Acona assist clients in keeping control of their safety and working environment systems. We provide reviews and upgrades of management systems, plan for field measurements and verifications and help finding solutions where these are needed.

.....

MORE INFORMATION

Acona AS
Laberget 24
N-4066 Stavanger
Norway
Tel. (+47) 52 97 76 00

CONTACTS

Julie Damsgaard Jensen
HSE Team Leader
Tel. (+47) 971 93 743
jdj@acona.com

Typical deliveries

- Assisting in setting up management systems for systematic follow-up of the working environment.
- Assessment of working environment risks
- Setting up working environment surveys and measurements
- Assessment of alternative improvement measures
- Defining policies and objectives
- Investigations and deviation analyses
- WEACs – Working Environment Area Chart
- Design advice, including implementation of regulatory requirements

Our staff

- Broad industry experience, particularly within the offshore oil industry
- Technical and operational background, with system knowledge
- Used to work with different disciplines

Approach and tools

- Facts based approach
- Ability to cooperate with other suppliers to achieve results
- Solid working tools, like risk assessment techniques and management system components
- Our main perspective is from design and operations

Client benefits

- Track record as supplier to the offshore industry
- Ability to supply team delivery as well as outsourcing of personnel
- Knowledge of the Norwegian regulatory regime and culture