

Lecture

Mr. Helge Hatlestad has more than 40 years' experience from the Oil and Gas industry. 3 years with Aker, 37 years with Statoil and to date as a Senior Advisor in Acona. He has had key roles within Project Control / Project Services and Field Development the first ten years, mainly on NCS. The next ten years serving in senior management positions as VP Field Development, Project Director, Asset Manager and Production Director in Norway. From 1996 Senior Vice President positions both internationally and domestically. Considerable managerial experience with all parts of the E & P business with an in depth competence on decision processes and governing systems requirements.

Acona AS
Field Development
Laberget 24
N-4020 Stavanger
Norway
Tel. (+47) 52 97 76 00

CONTACTS

Bengt Hope
Field Development Manager
Tel. (+47) 97008283
Bengt.hope@acona.com

Lecture

TBA

Petroleum Project Management: Principles and Practices

- Project management and the project life cycle
- Identifying and establishing a project governance
- Early phase Planning
- Stakeholder analysis and communication planning
- Scope definition
- Establishing of Work Breakdown Structure (WBS)
- Decision gates
- Defining task dependencies and resources for the project schedule
- Determining critical path and float
- Project management & organization
- Planning for quality
- Procurement planning
- Project risk analysis
- Project change control
- Project Monitor and Control
- Economic analysis
- Project quality reviews
- Closing processes and conducting lessons learned

4 days course

- Fixed cost for Planning & execution can be agreed

Location & language

- Can be arranged internationally and domestic
- Presented in English with English documentation

