

Acona has more than ten years of experience in the preparation of discharge applications on behalf of operators on the Norwegian Continental Shelf. Our environmental advisors safeguard the operators through the application process and ensure that the discharge applications are comprehensive, to the point and correctly formulated.

MORE INFORMATION:

Acona Environmental Services
 Rådhusgata 17
 N-0158 Oslo

 Tel: (+47) 971 93 743

 E-mail: jdj@acona.com

SERVICE CONTENT

- Discharge applications prepared according to guideline (M-593 2016)
- Thorough chemical evaluations
- Summary of the environmental studies
- Assistance in answering hearing comments
- Assistance in communication with the Norwegian Environment Agency (NEA)

CLIENT BENEFITS

- Compliance with the Norwegian petroleum regulations
- Chemical evaluations which fulfil the Norwegian petroleum regulations/ European REACH regulations
- Expert understanding of underlying environmental studies
- Highly competent communication with authorities
- Minimizes the number of hearing comments from NGOs and questions from the NEA

Acona is your professional partner in preparation of discharge applications for Norwegian Environment Agency. Our competence and experience safely guides clients through the process of receiving the discharge permit.

For more information, or to order a study, please contact Manager Environmental Services, Julie Damsgaard Jensen, +47 971 93 743