

HSE in well planning and drilling operations

Acona provide professional HSE support to well planning and drilling operations. We use our best practice, based on successful drilling of more than 50 wells on the NCS, including areas with challenging conditions.

MORE INFORMATION

Acona AS
 Laberget 24
 N-4066 Stavanger
 Norway
 Tel. (+47) 52 97 76 00

CONTACTS

Julie Damsgaard Jensen
 HSE Team Leader
 Tel. (+47) 971 93 743
jdj@acona.com

Our deliveries:

- A system for the rig intake and compliance verification process
- The necessary studies and assessments of site specific risk and emergency preparedness and environmental impact
- Preparations of the discharge application and application for the Consent to drill
- Assistance with authorities communication
- Systems and personnel for change management, exemptions and non-conformance handling, etc.
- Daily follow-up of operations
- Systems for lessons learnt and close-out of findings

Our tools:

- Established systems for planning, reporting and follow-up
- Standard analysis tools and methods

Client Benefits

- Integration with the Operator's organization
- Expert understanding of the Petroleum Safety Authority regulations
- Operationally experienced professionals
- Familiar with rig Operators and service providers
- Experience from HPHT, DST, Barents Sea and environmentally challenging operations
- In-house access to specialist support

Our team:

- Experienced HSE, well and drilling operations professionals
- HSE specialists to supply the necessary studies and assessments
- Established working routines and interaction with operational staff

